ROCK AT THE CASTLE MAIN STAGE

Parkside - 12:35pm – 1:00pm

We are a four-piece Alternative Rock band from Hertfordshire. Over a year ago we started to write and compose our own original music and, in the summer of 2014, we recorded our first EP "Early Days". Since then we have performed our original material at many local venues and we will do so into the future. We all love writing and performing music and creating a style that is unique and exciting for us and our audience.

Marching Donald – 1:15pm - 1:45pm

Named after his late grandfather, who played in a marching band and on whose guitar he learned to play, Marching Donald (Ryan Davies) is an acoustic contemporary folk singer songwriter who echoes the sound of such 60s troubadour folk names as Jackson C Frank and early Cat Stevens.

Tokyo Taboo - 2:00pm - 2:30pm

After months of writing and recording new music in Los Angeles, California with producer Noah Shain (Dead Sara, Orson), the duo are ready to unleash their new sound to the world. Expect a fresh take on rock and roll: soaring melodies, heavy White Stripe guitar riffs and licks, distorted Karen O vocals and Lena Lovich squeaks peppered with Gwen Stefani white girl rap.

Neil Gowans & The Winos – 2:45pm - 3:15pm

Neil Gowans & The Winos are a four-piece rock n' roll band in a fairly unashamedly and unapologetically old fashioned way. Formed in 2005 as Cardinal Wino, a recent change of drummers brought about a slight modification of the name. However, they bring you good time countrified rock 'n' roll full of twanging romanticism, a soupcon of soul and a generous dollop of rockabilly fire.

Ghost of Samantha - 3:30pm - 4:00pm

Samantha Grint, or The Ghost of Samantha is a young, up and coming British singer/songwriter. The Ghost of Samantha is the name of Samantha's on-stage persona: a ghost with a fun, spooky way of performing as a slightly different version of herself.
