Hertford Free Chocolate Easter Egg Hunt

Hertford Town Council has teamed up with Pretty Gorgeous Cake Company to put on a free children's Easter Egg Hunt in the town centre.

To take part, families should visit Hertford Town and Tourist Information Centre, in The Wash opposite Hertford Theatre, to pick up an Easter Egg Hunt map. Children will then need to locate a hidden egg in a number of local businesses around the town. Once children have completed the egg hunt they will be able to redeem a free Easter egg from the Tourist Information Centre.

The Easter Egg Hunt runs from 1st April to 15th April and will take participants on a route around the town centre where they can explore the independent retailers shops and attractions. Please note that the egg hunt will only take place during business opening hours.

Chairman of Hertford Town Council's Development and Leisure Committee, Cllr Jane Sartin, said: "The Easter Egg hunt will be a great Easter holidays activity for children, and highlight to those taking them on the hunt the wide range of shops and services on offer in Hertford's town centre."
