Rock at the Castle Line Up

Hertford Town Council is delighted to announce that this year's Rock at the Castle will take place on Sunday 6th August from 12.30pm – 7.30pm. The free music festival will be held in the grounds of Hertford Castle, and has seen thousands of visitors return year on year.

With four stages spread over three different areas there will be something for everyone. The main stage and acoustic stage will be on the main lawn along with refreshment stands, and the Moat Gardens will be home to an acoustic stage, a more relaxed area with a folk inspired feel. The Island will be home again to the family friendly area with pop music and lots of family entertainment including face painting, bouncy castle, children's games and sand art.

Hertford Town Council is grateful to our sponsors this year, McMullen's Brewery and Go Move.

Tom McMullen, from McMullen's Brewery said: "Nothing could be more perfect than unwinding to the tunes of talented local musicians, sipping a cool drink surrounded by friends and family – McMullen's are proud to continue their support for this great community event."

Oliver Ingles, from Go Move said:

“Go Move are proud to be sponsors of Rock at the Castle 2017! It has always been an event to put in the diary year upon year, and it always showcases why we all love Hertford.”

Hertford Town Council would like to thank Kev Saunders (Hertford Music Festival) for his continued support over the years.

The Council would also like to thank all of the acts that applied to perform at Rock at the Castle 2017.

Although Rock at the Castle is a free event to attend, this year’s selected charity, Richard Hale School’s appeal, in recognition of the school’s 400th anniversary, will be fundraising on the gates.

Visitors are limited to bringing no more than four cans of beer/cider/pre-mixed drinks or one bottle of wine per person into the premises before 4pm. No glass will be allowed on site other than wine bottles.
