

Home types in Hertfordshire

From Retrofitting Your House guide

These photos show some of the most common types of houses in Hertfordshire. To discover the most appropriate retrofit opportunities for your home, find the house type most similar to yours and navigate to the relevant pages in the HCCSP retrofit guide. This should outline the most suitable measures for your home, although you may also need to look at measures from earlier or later eras if the fit is not exact.

A

Large historical house

Age: pre-1919

Pages 30-36

B

Victorian terrace/workers' cottage

Age: pre-1919

Pages 37-42

C

Small semi-detached

Age: 1920-1950

Pages 43-48

D

Large semi-detached

Age: 1945-1959

Pages 49-54

E

Mid-century 'modern' and new town housing

Age: 1960-1979

Pages 55-60

F

End of century
mass house builder

Age: 1980-1999

Pages 61-66

G

Modern mass house builder

Age: 2000-onwards

Pages 67-72

Please note that not all houses will fit neatly into one of these categories and there are likely to be exceptions to the information provided here, when considering heritage buildings, conservation areas, flats and multiple-ownership homes. Check out Next steps advice on Page 74 before making any financial commitments.